The Colony Police investigate fatality accident

THE COLONY, Texas — At 9:40 p.m. Saturday, March 26, The Colony Police Department responded to report of a single-car major accident in the 7600 block of northbound Main Street.

Police determined that 61-year-old driver lost control of his vehicle and struck an electrical pole against the driver-side door. The victim suffered severe head injury from the impact and was pronounced dead at the scene. The victim was a Little Elm resident and was the sole occupant in the vehicle.

During the investigation, evidence was discovered that pointed to alcohol being a potential factor in the accident. The Colony Police Accident Investigation Unit will reconstruct the accident scene beginning at 7 a.m. Saturday, April 2, between West Lake Highlands and Lone Star Ranch Parkway. Various lanes will be closed during the investigation, which is expected to take between three and four hours, but the roadway will remain open.
